

2nd Workshop on European Academic CART Clinical Trials Programme - Friday, 14th January 2022

This program is fully live, and it will include a discussion after each presentation.

13:30 - 13:35	Welcome and introduction of the workshop	Álvaro Urbano-Ispizua
13:35 - 14:35	Session I: Difficulties and limitations producing vectors for CART clinical trials + Discussion Chair: Julio Delgado
	Vector Production: Critical starting material for CAR effector cells Hospital Clinic Barcelona Centralized production of the vector in Europe Non-viral vector	Ulrike Koehl María Castellà Bernd Schröder Michael Hudecek
14:35 - 14:45	Break
14:45 - 15:50	Session II: For a standardized model of Point of care model in Europe + Discussion Chair: Concetta Quintarelli
	An academic center's Point of View (Clinic Barcelona) Point of Care model in Europe Bringing TILs to the clinic Dutch government support for academic clinical trials	Manel Juan Peter Takacs Inge Jedema Tom Meerten
15:50 - 16:00	Break
16:00 - 17:05	Session III: Regulatory's point of view of how to facilitate academic CART development in Europe + Discussion Chair: Franco Locatelli
	EMA's point of view Preparation of the next legal framework for tissues and cells European grants for clinical trials and the future in clinical practice Hospital exemption	Ana Hidalgo-Simón Steefan Van Der Spiegel Juan Riese César Hernández
17:05 - 17:15	Break
17:15 - 17:50	Session IV: Academia's point of view of how to facilitate academic CART development in Europe + Discussion Chair: Jürgen Kuball
	T2EVOLVE CTIWP-EBMT GoCART	Hélène Negre Christian Chabannon John Gribben
17:50 - 18:00	Final comments and closing of the workshop	Christian Chabannon